Pacific State Bank Notes Eighth Anniversary Friday

Pacific State Bank will mark its eighth anniversary beginning tomorrow, according to President Robert C. Yeary.

Founded in March, 1955, Pacific State has increased seven-fold in total deposits, resources and account holders since completion of its first full year of operation in 1956. It now has more than $35,000,000 in total resources.

From an initial banking installation in Hawthorne, the firm now has six offices with branch establishments in Lennox, Windsor Hills, Peninsula Center, Torrance and a second facility—a drive-in—in Hawthorne.

IN NOTING the eighth birthday of the bank, President Yeary said, "Any success we have enjoyed is based upon the desire of the South Bay residents to do their banking at a community institution."

"Each automatic machine we have added to our 'payroll,' each improvement in our accounting and bookkeeping systems, each modernization and expansion of our facilities has been effected with one goal in mind—to increase our efficiency for better and faster customer service." Yeary added.

MILESTONES pointed out by Yeary in the bank's growth included: establishment of the branch operation, installation of an automated accounting system, creation of a public market for the bank's stock in 1961 and expansion of the Yeary thanked all those who had indicated confidence in the bank over the past eight years through their deposits, loans and use of other services.

ENRICO PORTA Has Featured Role

The Trovatore, Verdi's most popular opera will be given at Redondo High School Auditorium Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Featured are six well known soloists and the Civic Symphony of South Bay and Torrance, all under the direction of Conductor Elyse Aehle.

Enrico Porta, dramatic baritone, has become popular in the West and particularly in this area for his portrayal of the principal male roles in such operas as Tosca, Rigoletto, Traviata, Trovatore, Lucia, Macbeth, Elisei D'Amore, Martha, Cavalleria Rusticana, Faust, La Boheme and Carmen. In this area he is remembered for his part in Aida and the magnificent portrayal of the Hunchback in Pagliacci. His singing of the prologue will long be remembered for its beautiful emotional quality and fine tone.

PORTA IS A protege of the late Titto Ruffo and is a former member of the San Francisco Grand Opera Co. and the Los Angeles Opera Co. and is in great demand as a soloist.

Many people in the musical field do not realize that he is also famous in the medical field. He is contacted from all over the country because of his skill in designing and making braces for victims of illness and accidents who could not walk or even, in some cases, live without them.

OTHER MEMBERS of this outstanding cast are Anne Eagles Machamer, soprano, and Wanda Karos, both prominent prima donnas widely known in the West, Fredric Gates, much-admired young tenor, Lyle Heck, recent finalist in the
